HAITI: OBSERVERS FACE MANIPULATION FROM ALL SIDES [REDACTED]

THE UN-OAS MISSION HAS BECOME A FOCUS OF THE JOCKEYING BETWEEN HAITIAN POLITICAL FORCES. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

MILITARY LEADERS, RECOGNIZING THAT THE PRESENCE OF OBSERVERS
COULD SPARK CIVIL UNREST BY THE LEFT, HOPE TO CO-OPT THE MISSION. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] THE ARMY GENERAL STAFF BELIEVES THAT COOPERATION WILL ENABLE IT TO MONITOR MISSION ACTIVITIES AND TO DISCOURAGE THE OBSERVERS FROM SUPPORTING OR ENCOURAGING VIOLENT
ERUPTIONS; IT SUSPECTS MOST OF THEM FAVOR PRESIDENT ARISTIDE. PORT-
AU-PRINCE POLICE CHIEF FRANCOIS, APPARENTLY WITH THE APPROVAL OF ARMED FORCES COMMANDER CEDRAS, HAS PROMISED MISSION LEADERS
UNCONDITIONAL ASSISTANCE AND ESTABLISHED A LIAISON TEAM TO ADDRESS
SECURITY CONCERNS. [REDACTED]

COMMENT: THE EXPECTATIONS OF BAZIN AND THE MILITARY FOR THE OBSERVER FORCE SHOW THEIR OWN PARTISAN INTERESTS, AND THE SPIRIT OF COOPERATION MAY FADE, ESPECIALLY IF THE MISSION IS SEEN AS
